—— Quid faciunt leges ubi ſola pecunia regnat?

THO' Cæſar's Courſe to Dignity and Greatneſs might be more eaſy and certain than Cato's; yet, as the Manners and Actions of the laſt were the more worthy, it will be found that the Method he purſued, led more directly and honourably to the Summit of Glory. Who treads the direct Paths of Virtue, of Juſtice, of Modeſty, and Temperance, takes another way to arrive at Dignity than he who aims at it thro' the Intricacies of popular Favour. A Reputation founded upon good and virtuous Actions eſtabliſhes itſelf; while boaſted Honours, which take Riſe from public Poſts and Employments, if not grounded on ſolid Worth, after a little temporary Flaſh, vaniſh imperceptibly away and ſink into Obſcurity. The upright and ſolid Mind advances gradually in her Progreſs, as it were by a certain natural Motion, and confirms itſelf in the Habit of doing well; and conſequently, a Reputation, eſtabliſhed upon ſuch a Baſis, is the more durable and firm; whereas that which is acquired by outward Appearances, ſeldom ſtands the Teſt of a Man's Life; and, as it is the eaſier obtained, it is as eaſily loſt, perhaps on the ſlighteſt Occaſion. Popular Favour has ſeldom any better Foundation than the Humour or Caprice of the Multitude, for perhaps their own Intereſt and Advantage, and not from any real Eſteem to the Perſon it is beſtowed upon. The Multitude are ever fluctuating, and grow often ſurfeited with their own Likings, and ſo change the Object of their Humour, by transferring their Favour from This to That, without any Reaſon or juſt Occaſion: So that then a great Man, dreſſed up in the Pageantry of public Humour, never fails to become unhappy whenever he is ſtript of that tinſel Garb.

On the contrary, the Man, who has raiſed a Reputation on the Principle of doing Good, is ever in Poſſeſſion of a juſt Reward, as he feels thoſe pleaſing Operations of conſcious Worth glowing in his contented Mind, which, among the Wiſe, have been ever held to be the beſt Reward of good Actions; for the happy Man, who favours and countenances Equity and Juſtice, enforces the Laws into Obſervation, prefers the public to his private Intereſt, and ſeldom accounts any thing a real Injury where the Public is not concerned. Such a Man may be properly ſaid to be truly great, as public Dignity ſupports and maintains his private Credit, and therefore he ſeldom wants a Friend in the Day of Adverſity; even his Enemies run into his Aſſiſtance in Admiration of his Virtues. When Cato, by his diſintereſted Conduct in the Senate, had drawn upon himſelf the Enmity of the major Part of the Nobility of Rome of one Side, and the Diſpleaſure of the People on the other, for oppoſing the Agrarian Law; he was notwithſtanding raiſed to the Conſulſhip in Oppoſition to Metellus, who was ſtrenuouſly ſupported by the Intereſt and Favour of Pompey: And what is ſtill more remarkable, Murena, the famous Client of Cicero, whom Cato had accuſed and brought to Judgment, not only ceaſed his Reſentment againſt him afterwards, but actually defended him, and ſucceſsfully ſupported his reverend Authority againſt the Party of Metellus, when he entered the Piazza at the Head of many armed Men to promote the Law for the Return of Pompey and his Army into the City, in the Time of Cataline's Conſpiracy. When this venerable Patriot returned from Cyprus, his honourable Baniſhment as I called it in my laſt, the Magiſtrates, Prieſts, the whole Senate, and vaſt Numbers of People, crowded the Banks on either Side the Tiber, to hail his Return, and conduct him into the City, as it were, in Triumph. When, at another Time, the Violence of Craſſus and Pompey prevailed againſt him in a public Aſſembly, ſo as to diſappoint him of the Prætorſhip, he was followed home, tho' but in his private Capacity, by greater Numbers of People than the Magiſtrates themſelves.

Tho' the Conduct of Cæſar and Cato were diametrically oppoſite, and led them both into Dignity and Authority; yet each purſued the natural Bent of his Genius. Whoever would lay down theſe Examples before him to follow, ought to conſult and weigh well his natural Inclination, what End he would propoſe to himſelf, and the Form of Government he is under; for, without theſe Conſiderations, it is difficult to reſolve in what manner a Man muſt ſteer his Courſe. Who would win Favour muſt take ſpecial Care to avoid Affectation, for aſſuming an unnatural Character will bring him into Suſpicion of aiming at ſomething he would conceal, and ſo render his Actions in a diſagreeable Light; for if the Humane, the Pleaſant, and the Engaging, ſhould affect a Socratical Severity of Manners, he cannot exerciſe them ſo naturally as to eſcape the Imputation of going out of the way, and entertaining ſome ambitious Project in his Mind; and ſo will not only fall ſhort of his Purpoſe, but become ridiculous himſelf. On the contrary, a grave Man can never familiarize himſelf into a Complacency of Behaviour, to court, fawn, and flatter the Multitude into a good Opinion of him. A plain, unaffected Severity was natural to Cato: He was born with it, and continued to manifeſt it in all his Actions: He hated the Pageantries and Luxuries of Life. His Diet and Apparel were frugal and often coarſe. He uſed no Equipage, but traveled on Foot to his Country-houſe, and gave often Audience as a Magiſtrate in a homely and, what we would now call, a ſlovenly Dreſs. In ſhort, all his Actions and Manners were unpoliſhed, as well as undeſigning, as he generally deſpiſed what others valued themſelves upon. The very Reverſe to this was Cæſar; and yet both arrived to great Honour and Dignity, merely by attending to the natural Biaſs of their different Genius and Inclinations.

In the next Place, the End which a Man propoſes to himſelf, who would riſe in the World and flouriſh at the Head of a State, is to be conſidered; for if he aims only at the public Service and the Good of his Country, he ought to lay aſide every particular Intereſt and private View, to attend to the punctual Obſervance of Laws, and the Depreſſion of all ſuch ambitious Spirits, who, to the Prejudice of public Liberty, would become too powerful in a State. But if a Man, actuated merely by Ambition, propoſes to become great and powerful at all Events, he muſt intereſt all the Blandiſhments of Expreſſion, the Courteſy and Humanity of Actions, and all the engaging Inſinuations of Art to favour his Enterprize: Cæſar did ſo and humbled himſelf that he might mount the higher on the Rebound: He was munificent that he might get the more, and became ſubſervient to others in order to riſe into Command over them; and ſo not only attained to the greateſt Authorities in the Commonwealth, but engroſſed all Dignity and Authority into his own Hands.

Next a Man, who ſets out for Fame and Honours, is to conſider and ſuit himſelf to the Form of Government he happens to be under. In Optimatical Commonwealths, where Virtue is preferred to all other Conſiderations, Cato's Manners and Cuſtoms are undoubtedly the moſt ſuitable; but where popular Authority prevails, Cæſar's Manners and Artifices are the moſt likely to gain Approbation and Favour in the Suffrages of the Many. As the Commonwealth of Sparta was Optimatical, thoſe, who in their Conduct and Manner reſembled Cato, flouriſhed above all others; but, in the Popular Commonwealth of Athens, thoſe who applied the Douceurs du Langage to the Paſſions of the People, like Cæſar, never failed of carrying their Point. Hence ſhe fell a Sacrifice to the Ambition and Power of no leſs than Thirty Tyrants at once. As the Government of Rome was partly Optimatic and partly Popular, there was room enough for the different Diſpoſitions of a Cato or a Cæſar to prevail and riſe into Fame; as the Citizens were variouſly inclined: But as the popular Faction was much the ſtrongeſt, Cæſar's Arts and inſinuating Complacency in the Adminiſtration of public Affairs became more ſucceſsful than Cato's, who, adhering to the Principles of Optimacy to the laſt, was, together with the Senate, overborn by the unruly Flood of Popular Power, which lifted up Cæſar to the very Height of Authority, at the Expence of Public Liberty, and all Form of Civil Government.

But tho' Cæſar prevailed, and engroſſed the Government into his own Hands, againſt the virtuous Oppoſition of Cato; I can't forbear conſidering the laſt in a more glorious Light, than that in which his mighty Rival ſhone; as Virtue was his Characteriſtic, and that his Oppoſition was founded on the Public Good, in Support of Senatorial Power againſt private Factions, Triumvirates, and Oligarchies. Let all thoſe, who have the Happineſs to live under a Free Government, and embarked in the Cauſe of public Liberty, where Freedom of Speech is allowed, keep this venerable Patriot in their View, and hold it out, like him, to the laſt, againſt the Power of Corruption and Iniquity, ſo ſhall their Fame deſcend, like his, to lateſt Poſterity; and if, like him, they virtuouſly fall, it may well be ſaid, that, oppreſt with Multitudes, they greatly fell!

LONDON.

The Right Hon. the Earl of Suſſex and Lord Cathcart are expected in Town from France, on or before the 10th of next Month, a Yacht being ordered to bring them over.

We are aſſured, that an Invitation has been given from his Majeſty to his Seiene Highneſs, Prince Charles of Lorrain, to ſpend ſome Time at this Court; which Compliment his Highneſs returned in an obliging Manner, and promiſed to accept of his Majeſty's gracious Invitation as ſoon as he conveniently could.

The Counteſs of Kildare, lies dangerouſly ill at Holland Houſe.

On Thurſday Night the Fireworks, on Account of the Peace, were exhibited from the Building erected in the Green Park, St. James's, for that Purpoſe. They were mighty fine, &c. and gave more than general Satisfaction. The Sun diffuſed it's Glory a very conſiderable Time, near Fifty —— Seconds. The whole was conducted with great Skill and Dexterity, and the Right Side of the Machine, increaſing the Illumination, would have concluded the Night with a Bonfire of the whole Building, notwithſtanding the Playing of three Engines to extinguiſh it, had not the Grenadiers intercepted the Flames by pulling down part of the Edifice to ſave the reſt. We hear of no Miſchief done among the Mob, except a luſty Man who, having the Folly to think himſelf a Climber, fell down from a Tree, and pretty much bruiſed himſelf.

We hear that Sir John Wynn, Bart. will ſucceed his Father Sir Thomas Wynn, Bart. lately deceaſed, as one of the Principal Clerks belonging to his Majeſty's Board of Greencloth.

We hear that his Majeſty has been pleas'd to recall the Hon. Sir Charles Hanbury Williams, Knight of the Bath, from the Court of Dreſden, and to appoint him Envoy Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary to the Court of Berlin.

We hear from Berlin, that Mr. Coſte, an eminent Surgeon of Oxendon-ſtreet, who went thither about Family Affairs, has been appointed Surgeon in Ordinary to his Majeſty the King of Pruſſia, with a Salary of 2000 Rix-dollars per Annum.

A few Days ago died at Swanſea in South Wales, in an advanced Age, that worthy ſincere Man Benjamin Holme, an eminent Preacher amongſt the People call'd Quakers.

On Wedneſday the 19th Inſt. died at Chicheſter in Suſſex, Edmund Martin, Eſq; Lieutenant Colonel and Colonel Commandant of the King's own Regiment of Foot at the Battles of Falkirk, Culloden, Rocceaux, and La Felt.

Laſt Week as the Rev. Dr. Burroughs, Vicar of Cheneys in Bucks, was talking in Bed with his Wife, he died ſuddenly, without ſo much as a Groan or Convulſion. He was about 70 Years of Age, and his Father and himſelf had been Vicars of the ſaid Pariſh above 50 Years. He has left an inconſolate Widow, and five Sons and two Daughters: two of his Sons are Clergymen.

Sunday a Man, genteely dreſſed, was found hanging in his Garter, in a hollow Tree near the Gallows on Kennington Common; his Shoe, Knee, and Stock Buckles were Silver; and upon ſearching his Pockets there was found a Sixpence, a Penny, and a Penknife. He was taken to the Bonehouſe at Lambeth, in order to be own'd. It is thought he had hung ſome Time, one of his Fingers and Thumb being gnaw'd by Vermin; he has been ſince own'd, and proves to be one Mr. Holmes, a Midſhipman.

Monday a Man well dreſs'd was taken up floating on the Bank Side, and being brought to Shore, proved to be Mr. Hoſkins, Maſter of a Chatham Hoy; a Watch and about 30s. were found in his Pocket.

On Saturday Evening about nine o'Clock, a Man well dreſſed was attacked in the Fields near Stepney, by three Fellows, who, robbing him, bound his Wriſts together with a Cord, and then, laying him down on his Back, put his Right Leg thro' his Arms, in which Condition he was found by ſome Perſons paſſing that Way.

On Tueſday laſt in the Evening, as three Fellows were walking in Whitechapel Fields, one of them, by Chance, dropt a Piſtol out of his Pocket, which, being obſerved by ſome Sailors and other People, they rightly imagined them all to be Footpads, and immediately ſurrounded and took them all, and on Examination found each armed with a Caſe of Piſtols loaded. Hereupon the Sailors carried them to the Pond near the Halfway Houſe, where they diſciplined them a conſiderable Time; and afterwards took them before a Juſtice, who for that Night ſent them to the Cage, and Wedneſday Morning committed them all to Newgate.

On Saturday between Twelve and One o'Clock at Noon a Market-Woman was attacked by a ſingle Footpad in the Fields leading to Whitechappel to Shadwell, who robbed her of upwards of ten Pounds, with which he endeavour'd to make off towards Sun Tavern Fields, but the Woman crying out, he was purſued and taken, and being carried before a Juſtice, was committed to Priſon.

Monday was committed to the Poultry County, by Alderman Cockaine, Laurence Lee, for being concern'd in ſeveral Robberies on the Highways, &c. particularly that of Mr. Wheeler and Mr. Delaporte, whoſe Hanger was found upon him when taken, and on ſearching his Houſe, found Piſtols loaded, &c. He acknowledges himſelf the Chief of the Gang, and has given Information againſt ſeveral, particularly one James Wood an Iriſhman, who went away laſt Saturday with Mr. Delaporte's Watch, Rings, &c as advertis'd April 6, beſides a Silver Watch, and a Pair of Piſtols mounted in Silver, and other Things belonging to Perſons robbed by the ſame Gang. He is a middle ſiz'd Man, with an Olive coloured Cloth Coat lined with red a Blue Sprig'd Linnen Waiſtcoat, Leather Buck-ſkin Breeches, and a Black Wig; he has ſore Eyes, and his Left is ſmaller than his Right, a flattiſh Noſe, of a yellow-iſh Complection, thick Lip'd, and but little Beard; he told Lee that he ſhould ſell the above Things to a Captain going to Holland. And Wedneſday

He was re-examined, before the Sitting Alderman and made a full Diſcovery of a Gang of ſixteen principally concern'd in all the Robberies and Houſebreaking in and about London for theſe Twelve Months paſt; alſo Peter Murfy now in New Priſon, has given much the ſame Account, in Hopes of being admitted Evidences; but as neither are admitted, 'tis imagin'd ſome one of the Gang leſs criminal will take the Benefit of impeaching the reſt, by which he will be entitled to the Reward, which is 140l. for each Perſon convicted, and a free Pardon. The above Lee has confeſs'd being Accomplice with others in robbing and murdering Mr. Scott, a few Weeks ſince, near Iſlington; and alſo of being concerned in the Robbery at the Ferry at Hackney.

Laſt Saturday Morning ſome Rogues found means to break into the Warehouſe of Meſſ. Langley and Co. Oyl Merchants at Queenhith, and took out of the Deſk in the Counting Houſe the Sum of 200l. in Money, and above 100l. in Bank Notes, and made off undiſcovered.

Yeſterday ſe'nnight in the Afternoon, as Mrs. Huxley, a Widow Gentlewoman, was taking an Airing in her Chariot, with a young Lady her Niece, near Palmer's Green, in the Pariſh of Edmonton; they were accoſted by a Gentleman like Man on Horſeback, who without the rough, unmannerly behaviour, commonly uſed by thoſe People who extort Money, rode up the Chariot, and told the Ladies he muſt have their Money. The young Lady had the Preſence of Mind as to think Delays might be dangerous, ann immediately handed all her Money a croſs her Aunt, and gave it him. The old Lady pulled out her Purſe, and was going to take out ſome Money to give him, willing to ſave all ſhe could; but he, willing to give her as little Trouble as he could, took the whole, Purſe and all, telling her he was much ſtreighten'd at Preſent; beg'd their Pardons; deſir'd they would not be frighten'd, for that he had treated them with as great Civilities as the Nature of the Caſe would allow, as he had neither ſhewn them a Piſtol or ſwore one Oath: He then made a genteel Horſeman's Bow, and rode off.

Wedneſday Dominick White, and William Horner, for Houſe breaking; David Davis, for a Street Robbery; William M'Laughlin, for the Highway; Anne Vane, for a Robberry in Smithfield; Joſeph Walters, for returning from Tranſportation; Thomas Kingmill, and William Fairall, for being concerned in breaking open, and robbing the Cuſtom-Houſe at Poole, were carried in three Carts, and executed at Tyburn, purſuant to their Sentence. After the Execution was over, the Bodies of Kingmill and Fairall were carried under a ſtrong Guard to New-Croſs Turnpike, where they were received by the Sheriff's Officers for the County of Kent, and afterwards hung in Chains, Fairall on Horſemondon-Green, where he liv'd; and Kingmill at Gouders Gore, by William Hartnup, who was lately executed.

Extract of a Letter from Portſmouth dated April 21.

"The Woman who was committed to Priſon for the Murder of her Baſtard Child, has, by Poiſon, deſtroy'd herſelf: 'Tis ſuppoſed ſhe has taken great Quantities, and that before her Delivery."

Letters from Paris adviſe, that a Reſolution has been taken for forming forty independant Companies from the Invalids, who are to be ſent to Cape Breton.

On Monday an Expreſs arrived from the Court of France, which we hear has brought ſome ſatisfactory Diſpatches relating to the Iſland of Tobago. The ſame Expreſs brings an Account of the Reſtitution of Cape Breton, after the Demolition of the new Fortifications raiſed by the Engliſh.

Private Letters from Holland adviſe, that amidſt the preſent Embarraſſment of their Affairs, nothing gives thoſe who have the true Intereſt of their Country at Heart, more Concern, than the Departure of many of their moſt conſiderable Traders, who are leaving Holland with little Noiſe, one after another, in order to ſettle in England and other Places.

By a private Letter from Bruſſels, dated April 27, we are informed, that a very ſtrict enquiry will ſpeedily be made into the Conduct of ſeveral Perſons during the late War; that the Papers of ſome of them have been already ſeized; and that it is not at all doubted that Diſcoveries of great Importance will be made.

We learn from Venice, by a Letter dated April, the 9th, that the laſt Advices from Conſtantinople mention a very great Inſurrection there, which, not without ſome Difficulty, was ſuppreſſed; and for the defeating of which, the Janiſſaries found themſelves under a Neceſſity of putting ſeveral Hundreds to the Sword, notwithſtanding which, they are under continual Apprehenſions of ſeeing the ſame mutinous Spirit break out afreſh.

They write from Rome, April 12, that on Eaſter Sunday the Pope aſſiſted at High Maſs in the Chapel of Sixtus the fifth, when the Service was performed by Cardinal Steuart, and twenty eight Cardinals were preſent upon the Occaſion. The Chevalier de St. George had an Audience of the Pope ſoon after, to acquaint him with the Contents of his laſt Diſpatches from Avignon, of which nothing has tranſpired.

A Letter from Baſſia, dated April 3, inform us, that the French have at preſent four thouſand regular Troops in the Iſland of Corſica, quarter'd in that City at San Firenzo, in the Territory of San Pellegrino, Padulella; but that the Corſicans remained ſtill Maſters of Calvi and Bonifacio, in each of which Places they have a numerous Garriſon; that they make no ſcruple of declaring they hold theſe as cauſionary Fortreſſes, to prevent falling again under the Dominion of the Genoeſe.

Captain Lieutenant Francis Burton is promoted to be a Captain of a Troop in Bligh's Regiment of Horſe, in the room of Mr. Capt. Thomas Burton preferred.

Major Chriſt. Clarges, of St. George's Dragoons, is promoted to be Lieutenant Colonel of that Regiment in the room of Mr. Arabin, moved to Bligh's.

SCOTLAND.

Edinburgh, April 18. On the 4th Current the Aſſociate Synod met at Briſto, near this City, and ſat 'till Friday laſt; their Deſign of meeting was in order to proceed to the greater Sentence of Excommunication againſt ſeveral of the Brethren who have ſeceded from them, and whom they had formerly laid under the leſſer Sentences Many Arguments were advanced by ſome of the eldeſt Members for that Effect, and various Texts of Scripture adduced, particularly Mat. xviii. 17. "If he neglect to hear the Church, "let him be unto the as an Heathen Man and a Publican." Yet notwithſtand this their Keeneſs, it carried by a great Majority, to delay the Affair for ſome Time; upon which Meſſ. Moncrief and Mair entered their Proteſts in common Form; but we hear they have ſince withdrawn them. When the abovementioned Text was adduced, a Woman from one of the Lofts in the Place of meeting cried out, Ye are not the Church, but a ſchiſmatical Part of it. Which occaſion'd ſome little Confuſion in the Synod.

The City of Glaſgow, in Conſideration that they ſuffer'd for nothing but their diſtinguiſhed Zeal and Loyalty to his Majeſty and his Family, have had 10000l. granted them, to reimburſe the Sums, extorted from them by the Rebels during the late Rebellion.

The UNIVERSAL HISTORY,

From the earlieſt Account of TIME.

☞ The Proprietors of this Work think themſelves obliged, on the Cloſing of their great Undertaking, to return their humble Acknowledgments to the Public, for the great Encouragement and kind Reception it has met with: Which has enabled them (in order to ſhew their grateful Senſe of it's Favour) to augment the Bulk of the ſeveral Volumes, without enhancing the Price. And accordingly, as they early found, that the Work, with the propoſed Additions to it, large as the Page and cloſe as the Print was, would extend to Twenty-two Volumes, they, in order to bring it into Twenty, not only ſtill further enlarged the Page, but increaſed the Number of Sheets in each Volume; ſo that ſeveral of the Volumes will be found to contain upwards of Forty Sheets, and the laſt particularly Fifty.

SPRUCE BEER ſold at the ſame Place.

The True Cordial QUINTESSENCE of VIPERS, the moſt Noble and Grand Preparation in the whole Materia Medica, for the real, ſubſtantial Cure of Impotency in Men, and Barrenneſs in Women; and is vaſtly preferable to Viper Wine, or any other Preparation of Vipers whatever, is being replete with the full and whole Virtues of them.

A FEW Drops of it only, gives ſuch a generous Warmth, and ſo exceedingly delights the Vital and Animal Spirits, Senſes, and Nerves, as ſoon to ſhew what it will do, upon a little Continuance of it; for it not only promotes, and prompts to a Deſire, but alſo furniſhes proper Matter, for the Support and Eſtabliſhment of a true laſting Incl nation and Power.

By this Means it anſwers the End as well of Food as Phyſick; nor is there any thing in Nature beſides, that can in that Reſpect come up to it conſidering that it univerſally nouriſhes and reſtores in all the Declenſions of Deſire and Vigour, without the leaſt forcing the Veſſels, or ſtimulating the Parts, as moſt other Medicines for theſe Purpoſes do: And ho' it be a Maxim in Phyſick, that SINE CERERE & BACCHO FRIGET VENUS, th s, in itſelf, is ſo ſufficiently nutritious as to want no Aſſiſtance that Way; not but it muſt be allowed that good Eating and Drinking with it, cannot but in ſome Degree, at leaſt as an Auxiliary contribute to its Efficacy.

Nor does it only furniſh Matter and create Deſire, but alſo true Power (as it braces up and corroborates the Teſtes) and gives an elaſtick Springineſs to the Muſculi Erectores Penis in Men, and corrects, cleanſes, and comforts the Uterus, or Womb in Women, the Lankneſs and Laxity of the former, and the Fouineſs, Coldneſs, or Obſtruction of the latter, being more the Cauſe of Impotency or Infertility, in the one Sex, and Indifferency or Sterility in the other, than any Thing elſe beſide; and that it is Balſamick, and greatly Reſtorative, is confirmed by long Experience, and we have many Inſtances in Phyſical Writings, of Perſons arriving to a healthful old Age, as well as recover'd from deplorable Decays and Weakneſſes, by a continued Uſe of the common Preparations of Vipers, which this Quinteſſence, by being of vaſtly more Efficacy, brings about in a Quarter of the Time, and with the Tenth Part of the Quantity.

Thoſe who but once try it, will ſo pleaſantly experience it nutritive quickening Properties, in exhilerating the Heart, reviving the Spirits, comforting the Vitals, circulating the Juice, and recreating and renovating, as it were the whole Man, that they will never be without it; for it is ſuch a preſent Help, in Time of Need, as that on the taking then but a Doſe or two more of it than ordinary, it will ſo inſtantaneouſly animate the dull inactive Spirits, and rouze up and actuate the ſluggiſh enfeebled Faculties, in both Sexes, as to excite and capacitate where it could hardly be expected, and at the ſame Time ſeldom fails to render that conjugal Intercourſe Prolifick, Price Half a Guinea the Bottle.

Mr. Weſt, Goldſmith, who us'd to ſell theſe Bottles, being lately dead, it is now Sold only by his Son-in-Law, Mr. Johnſon, a Baker, at the Seven Stars in Vere-Street, Clare-Market, ſealed up with Directions (for any Meſſenger) upon asking for only a Bottle of Quinteſſence.

GLEETS and SEMINAL WEAKNESSES,

SO deſtructive to the Conſtitution, and ruinous not only to the unhappy Individual labouring under them, by draining away the Radical Subſtance or very Eſſence of Life, and inducing Conſumptions, Nervous Diſorders, &c. but to Poſterity alſo, inaſmuch as thoſe afflicted with ſuch Gleetings, if not wholly diſabled, as very many are, from propagating their Species, are yet render'd incapable of begetting any other than puny, miſerable, and ſhort-liv'd Iſſue.

Theſe waſting Gleetings, occaſion'd by Self-pollution, exceſſive Venery, ſevere Purging for Venereal Injuries, or by violent Strains, &c. and which have been deem'd by almoſt all Phyſicians and Surgeons to be ſo very difficult to overcome, are now ſo certainly known to be directly, and in a manner at once perfectly cur'd by the Grand Reſtrictive Balſamick Electuary, that no one, how bad ſoever, need deſpair of being entirely ſet to Rights by it in a few Days.

It is from this its moſt extraordinary Efficacy, that ſo many Practitioners in Town and Country now ſend for it for their Patients, as finding it to be the only ſure and infallible Remedy that can be ſafely rely'd upon in thoſe Caſes. The Price of this Grand Medicine is 6s. a Pot, ſeal'd up, with a Book of Inſtructions, highly neceſſary to be read by all Perſons whoever were afflicted with any Diſorder of the Seminal Veſſels or neighbouring Parts.

Note, This fam'd Balſamic Electuary is now, by the Author's Appointment, to be had only at Mr. Eglinton's (Mr. Radford being deceaſed) at the Golden Pair of Spectacles againſt the Eaſt-End of the New Church in the Strand, London. Ask only for a 6s. Pot of Balſamic Electuary. No Letters anſwer'd unleſs Poſt-paid.

ANTI-SIPHYLICON.

THE only ſhort and moſt infallible CURE in the Univerſe for the Venereal Diſeaſe from the ſlighteſt Infection to the moſt extreme and deplorable Degree of it, even when the Blood and Juices are thoroughly contaminated with its malignant Virus, and the very Bones are affected with it.

Freſh Infections, call'd Claps, with all their attendant Symptoms, tho' ever ſo ſevere, are entirely carried off by it in a few Days, and to as effectually to prevent the Blood and Juices from being tainted with any remaining Relicks, on one Hand, or a ſeminal Gleet, or Weakneſs, to happen on the other.

And the moſt inveterate Degree of the French Illneſs, attended with noctural Pains, univerſal Breakings-out, and all other the moſt exſeparate Symptoms, are ſoon overcome by it, and effectually and much more ſafely cured than by Salivation, Inungation, or any other Method whatever, and in ſo eaſy and pleaſant a Manner, without impairing Strength, or occaſioning any Inconvenience, as loudly to beſpeak it the only appoſite Remedy, or true Venereal Antidote in the World, and this ſome Thouſands have, to their great Joy, experienced.

It is pleaſant to take, occaſions no Sickneſs or Diſorder, nor requires Confinement, but may be taken, and the Cure be accompliſhed, without the Knowledge of the neareſt Friend.

Thoſe who ſuſpect they have received an Injury may, by only a Doſe or two of it, be perfectly freed from all Apprehenſions; for it ſuffers no lurking Venum to lie hid in the Body, but wholly extirpates it, Root and Branch, in a gentle, eaſy, and effectual Manner.

All ſuch, likewiſe, as doubt they have ſome remaining Relicks of former Injuries, may, by a few Doſes of it, entirely free themſelves from all Suſpicions of that Kind; for it admits of no Foulneſs, Corruption, or Putrefaction whatever, to remain in the Fluids, or to adhere to the Solids; and, on that Account, in all Scorbutick, Scrophulous, and even Leprous Eruptions, or Foulneſſes of the Skin, or glandulous Swellings, and Impurities of the Juices, it does more by one Doſe than any other Medicine, yet known, can by ten.

The Price of this moſt noble Anti-Siphylicon is but ſix Shillings a Pot, which, conſidering its extraordinary Efficacy, one Pot only being ſufficient, in moſt Caſes, to accompliſh the Cure, is not a tenth Part of its Value; and is ready ſealed up, with a Book of Inſtructions, by the Peruſal of which all Perſons who were ever affected with any Degree of the Venereal Diſeaſe may perfectly underſtand their own Condition, and certainly know when, and when not, the Venereal Poiſon is entirely rooted out of their Bodies.

Note, This Grand Anti-Siphylicon is now, by the Author's Appointment, to be had only at Mr. Eglinton's (Mr. Radford being deceaſed) at the Golden Pair of Spectacles againſt the Eaſt-End of the New Church in the Strand, London. Ask only for a Six Shilling Pot for the Scurvy. No Letters anſwer'd, unleſs Poſt-paid.

Dr. R. NELSON, being well known to have made the Cure of Seminal and Genital Imbecilities his chief Study and Practice for above thirty Years, does recommend his moſt Noble Cleanſing and Strengthning ELIXIR, which thouſands of People have experienced, to be the only BALSAMICK HEALING RESTORING Medicine in the World,

For Gleets and Weakneſſes,

THE Bane of Virility in the one Sex, and Deſtroyer of Fertility in the other, whether from ill cur'd Venereal Infections (than which nothing is more common) or from inordinate Coition, or Self-Pollution (that curſed School Wickedneſs, which ſpoils all our Youth, by nipping their Manhood in the Bud) or from involuntary Emiſſions a Nights in the Sleep, or in the Day Time upon Stool or with the Urine, or from Falls, Blows, Strains, Wrenches, or the like, which drain, and dry up the Seminals, and wither, as it were the Generative Faculties, cauſing Impotency in Men, the Fluor Albus, and Barrenneſs in Women, (or but a weakly, ſickly Offspring if any) and in the long Run (by impoveriſhing the Blood and Spirits) Melancholy, Vapours, Decays of Nature, and Conſumptions.

No Medicine can be more pleaſant to take, nor any Thing upon Earth more effectual for the Purpoſe; for let the Imbecility be ever ſo great, or of ever ſo long ſtanding, and be either in the Parts Spermatick Veſſels, or Back, with Pain, or without, it certainly Cures, by reviving and enriching the Blood and Spirits, comforting, nouriſhing, and replenithing the Reins and Seminals, and ſtrengthning, and reſtoring the Genital Parts in both Sexes, how much ſoever weakned, rendred cold, or deadned, and bringing them to their natural Force, Warmth, and Vigour, by thickening and fertilizing the Seed, which before was thin, wateriſh, or yellowiſh, and conſequently inſufficient, either for Procreation or the Act of it.

All Diſorders of the Urine, as Difficulty in the making or retaining it, or its dribling away, hot or ſmarting, or foul, ſlimy, thready, greaſy or ſlinking, whether from Gravel, Stone, Strangury, or a Venereal Cauſe are likewiſe ſpeedily cured by it, and the Water made to be held as ſtrongly, and yet brought away as freely, eaſily, full ſtream'd, and clear as ever.

Price 5s. a Bottle. Prepared by the aboveſaid Author, and ſold only) ſealed up with Directions how to take it) at Mr. Corbett's Bookſeller, at Addiſon's Head, oppoſite St. Dunſtan's Church Fleet-Street, and by Henry Cook, under the Royal-Exchange, asking only for a 5s. Bottle of Elixir.

To all Gentlemen, Builders, and others

THOMAS ETTERIDGE, COLOURMAN,

(Son in Law to the late Mr JOSEPH EMERTON, who in his Life time chiefly managed his Business)

At the BELL and SUN, over-against Norfolk-Street, between St Clement's and the New Church in the Strand, London,

CONTINUES to Sell, in the same Manner his late Father did, all Sorts of COLOURS, ready prepared (at the lowest Prices) that any Gentlemen, Builders, &c may fet their Servants or Labourers to Paint their Houses, only by the Help of a printed Direction, which he gives with his Colours.

He likewise sells to the Ladies all sorts of WATER COLOURS and VARNISH with every thing necessary for the New Japanning; and gives a printed Direction, for the doing of it to the greatest Perfection, to those that buy Colours. Also Italian Powder for cleaning Pictures, and fine Picture Varnish.

He deals only for READY MONEY.

His House faces Norfolk Street, and not Arundel Street, in the Strand.

The So-much Fam'd HYPO-DROPS.

WHICH in a few Days infallibly cure Hypochondriack Melancholy in Men, and the Vapours in Women, fo as never to return again; be they ever fo fevere, or of many Years ftanding, and even after all other Remedies have prov'd ineffectual, and that by immediately ftriking at the very Root or true Caufe, as well as remedying the Effects, of thofe perplexing Maladies and all their Variety of Symptoms, by which they mimick by Turns, almoft all the Diseases poor Mortals are afflicted with, and have their Rife from a depraved Appetite, vicious Ferment in the Stomach, and Indigeftion of Food, whence proceed Crudities and flatulent or windy Diforders in the firft Paffages, ill Fumes, four Belchings, Cholick, and Uneafinefs in the Bowels, which Crudities offend the Nerves, and, by Confent of Parts, affect the Head, and produce fometimes Giddinefs, Dimnefs of Sight, confufed Thoughts, pertinacious Watchings, troublefome Sleeps, Frights, groundlefs Fears, and the deepeft Melancholy, with direful Views and terrible Apprehenfions; another times, Fits, flufhing Heats, Reachings, Faintnefs, Lownefs and Sinking of Spirits and Palpitation of the Heart, Startings, Trembhngs and Twitchings in the Limbs and other Parts, with many convulfive Diforders, fharp Pains, fix'd or wandering, Pain and Weaknefs in the Back, and other almoft innumerable and grievous Symptoms, which miferably afflict vaft Numbers of both Sexes.

All which Symptoms in their fharpeft Paroxyfms, thefe fomuch fam'd and moft pleafant Drops, (which are Chymically prepar'd from the moft valuable Specificks in the Mineral, Vegetable, and Animal Kingdoms, and exalted to the higheft Degree of Perfection poffible) inftantly quell, and at the fame time annihilate their real Caufe, directly bringing the Stomach into right Order, creating a good Appetite, rectifying the Digeftion, occafioning laudable Chyle, and, of courfe, good Blood, Plenty of calm, free, and chearful Spirits, a regular Circulation of all the Fluids, and Strength of Nerves; fo that both Caufe and Effects of Melancholy and Vapours, are thoroughly removed by them, almoft on the Spot, as the many Thoufands of both Sexes they have perfectly cured, evince.

Whoever takes them for three Days only, will be fenfible they are abfolutely to be depended upon for an effectual and laftiug Cure, and certain it is, that no Medicine upon Earth can equal them; be careful therefore to have the right Drops, which are to be had only at Mrs. Holt's, at the Crofs-Keys and Star below the Royal Exchange, in Cornhill, at 3s. 6d. a Bottle, with Directions, at large.

The only short and infallible Cure for that reigning Disease the SCURVY, and all Scorbutick Humours, tho' arrived in the highest or most inveterate Degree, or of ever so many Years standing, and that without any fenfible Evacuation, or the leaft Purging, which, by an unaccountable Miftake, is generally advifed, altho' always found rather to encreafe and confirm the Scurvy than cure it.

By the fo much fam'd and moft Pleafant Chymical DROPS.

WHICH, without the leaft Trouble, Confinement, or any Diforder whatever, dout once ftrike at the true Caufe of the Scurvy and entirely deftroy it, and all Scorbutick Humors and Effects, Root and Branch, fo as never to return again, as many Thoufands of both Sexes have experienced, and to all who take them in Three Days Time are convinced; for they almoft inftantly alter the morbid State of the Juices, purify the Blood, fweeten all the Fluids, cleanfe them from Impurities, and directly clear the whole Habit from all Spots, blotches, black and blue Marks, Itchings, foul Eruptions or Breakings out, Weaknefs of the Limbs, languid Heavinefs of the whole Body wandering Pains, Weaknefs of the Back, and all the vaft Variety of Symptoms by which the Scurvy imitates and often lies conceal'd under the Appearance of the Rheumatifm, and many other Diftempers.

And for ftrengthening the Stomach, immediately creating a good Appetite, caufing a regular and eafy Digeftion of Food, and curing all windy Effects and Diforders of the firft Paffages, (whence proceed Head-Achs, Vapours, and other Indifpofitions) no Bitters, nor any other Medicine upon Earth can compare with them; infomuch that befides infallibly curing the Scurvy in all its Shapes and Appearances they affuredly and directly cure the Green-Sickneſs in Virgins, Worms, of all Kinds, in Young or Old, and almoft all other Chronick Diſeaſes, which are chiefly occafioned by Indigeftion and flatulent Crudities in the Stomach and Bowels) and certainly prevent Fevers, Agues, and other acute Illneſſes.

They are wonderfully Cordial and Reftorative, ſtrengthen and enliven the whole Machine, and as ſoon as taken, make the Patient pleafantly lightſome, brisk and vigorous to Admiration, and are good for all Sorts of Perſons, to preſerve as well as to procure a ſound and healthful State of Body.

But the great Reputation theſe ſo much fam'd and moſt pleaſant Chymical DROPS have ſo univerſally gain'd among Perſons of Eminence, for their ſuddenly and infallibly curing the Scurvy and all Scorbutick Humors, and other Chronick Diſeaſes, in ſuch an eaſy and agreeable Manner, have occaſioned many to imitate them, ſome under the ſame, and others under other Names; be careful therefore not to be deceived, but be ſure to have the Right, which, by the Author's ſpecial Appointment, are to be had, only at the Gentlewoman's at the two blue Poſts in Haydon Yard in the Minories at 3s. 6d a Bottle, with Directions.

For the VENEREAL DISEASE.

THE ſhorteſt, ſafe, and regular Cure, this Day in the World, from the ſlighteſt Infection to the moſt inveterate Degree of it, by a Medicine as pleaſant to take, and as eaſy in its Operation as it is effectual in its Cure; ſo that the unfortunate Patient gets ſuddenly and ſurprizingly well, without Diſtaſte to his Palate, the leaſt Diſorder of Body, or any Confinement whatever. This is that great Remedy, now ſo well known and long experienced to be truly infallible, and is the Grand ANTI-SYPHILICON that Radcliffe and Garth uſed to ſay would totally extirpate the Venereal Diſeaſe from the Face of the Earth, were it but univerſally known, and properly taken. Freſh Infections, call'd Claps, with all their cruel attendant Symptoms, it preſently cures; and if taken in Time, even prevents their taking Place. It is a ſafe, gentle, and pleaſant Family Purge, even for Children as well as grown Perſons, in all Caſes where Purging is neceſſary; nor can the deepeſt Scurvy, Rheumatiſm, Gout, Evil, or Leproſy, ſtand before it, but are pleaſantly cured and thoroughly extirpated by it, as well as the higheſt and moſt inveterate State of the confirmed Venereal Diſeaſe; which, with all its moſt raging Symptoms, it ſoon eradicates, reſtoring Health, Strength, and Vigor to the Body. Thoſe who once take it, will never have Recourſe to any Thing elſe. One Pot in moſt Caſes is ſufficient for a Cure.

Price 6s. a Pot, ſealed up with a Book of Inſtructions, by which all Perſons may fully underſtand their own Condition, and certainly know when, and when not, the Venereal Poiſon is rooted out of their Bodies. Note, This Grand Anti Syphilicon is now, by the Author's Appointment, to be had only at Mr. Eglinton's (Mr. Radford being deceaſed) at the Golden Pair of Spectacles againſt the Eaſt-End of the New Church in the Strand, London. Ask only for a Six Shilling Pot for the Scurvy. No Letters anſwered unleſs Poſt-paid.

To Perſons of either Sex,
Afflicted with any Species of the PALSY, or other Nervous Decays.

NEVER were NERVOUS DISEASES, PALSIES, and PARALYTICK DISORDERS ſo frequent as of late they have been, nor have the uſual Remedies been found adequate to thoſe pertinacious Diſtempers: This occaſioned a Phyſician, who employed his Thoughts much concerning them, to adapt a Medicine, a Sovereign Elixir peculiar to, and effectual for, the Palſy, and all other Nervous Complaints now reigning, which, after he had experienced on vaſt Numbers of Perſons of both Sexes, and always with ſurprizing Succeſs even ſo as infallibly to cure by it the Palſy, and all Paralytick Effects and Nervous Diſorders, he permitted it to be made publick for a general Good, that ſo thoſe labouring under theſe miſerable Ailments might know where to meet with a ſafe and moſt certain Cure, which it accompliſhes in ſo ſhort a Time, and with ſuch Eaſe and Pleaſure (a few Drops of it being a Doſe, highly agreeable to the Palate, and comforting to the Stomach and Bowels) as is almoſt incredible to relate.

But the taking one Bottle of it only demonſtrates its prodigious Efficacy to every one, and the Patients ſoon finds all Numbneſs, Deadneſs, and ſhaking, or Reſolution of the Nerves, as well as all convulſive, cramp-like, or painful Contractions of them, vaniſh and return no more, and this, though theſe Diſeaſes have been of many Years ſtanding, and whether occaſioned by long Illneſs, faſt Living, hard drinking, or any other Cauſe; for it performs all that can be wiſhed for in Nervous Caſes, creates an Appetite, expells Wind, rectifies the Digeſtion, occaſions laudable Chyle, attennuates the Blood and Juices, cauſes a free and regular Circulation of 'em thro' the Capillary Veſſels, revives and increaſes the Spirits, warms, comforts, ſtrengthens, and replenifhes the Brain and whole Nervous Syſtem, hence the Sinews, Tendons, Ligaments, and all the enfeebled Parts are invigorated, the Limbs reſtored to their priſtine Steadineſs and Strength, and the Palſy and all Paralitick Diſorders and Nervous Decays ſuddenly cured by it, to the Admiration of the Patients themſelves, and all about them.

This ſovereign and incomparable Elixir is permitted to be ſold only at Mrs. Holt's, at the Croſs Keys and Star below the Royal Exchange in Cornhill, London, at 3s. 6d. a Bottle, with printed Directions at large.

For the Immediate Cure of BARRENNESS in WOMEN tho' of many Years Continuance, and proceeding from what Cauſe ſoever,

And alſo of IMPOTENCY in MEN, however occaſion'd, or of ever ſo long Standing,

The Famous and Ineſtimable PROLIFICK ELIXIR,

The higheſt, richeſt, and moſt powerful Cordial in Nature, is recommended,

BEING the only true and Infallible Cure for Barrenneſs in Women, and Impotency in Men in the Univerſe, and which at once accompliſhes without the leaſt Trouble, even after all other Remedies have fail'd, as Thouſands have Experienced, and that by promoting the chearful Curricle of the Blood and Juices, raiſing all the Fluids from their languid depreſſed State, to one more florid and ſparkling; opening all Obſtructions, fortifying the Nerves, encreaſing the Animal Spirits, reſtoring a Juvenile Bloom, and evidently replenifhing the criſpy Fibres of the whole Habit, with a generous Warmth and balmy Moiſture, and thereby invigorating it to ſuch a Degree as not to be imagin'd, but by thoſe who have experienced how exceedingly and ſuddenly it renovates, recruits and powerfully ſtrengthens all the Animal Faculties, and Generative Powers in both Sexes. It inforces a bright lively Diſpoſition baniſhes Melancholy, and inſpires Mirth and Gladneſs of Heart beyond Expreſſion.

Abundance of Ladies, who for ſeveral Years were deem'd incurable Barren, have after twice taking it, conceived and became Fruitful, and great Numbers of Gentlemen, who by faſt living or otherwiſe, had render'd themſelves incapable of Procreation, have ſoon been enabled by it to propagate their Species, inſomuch, that very many illuſtrious Families, who, for want of Children, were almoſt inconſolable, are now bleſt with happy Iſſue, and are (under Providence) indebted to this Great Medicine for their Heirs.

It rectifies all Diſorders of the Stomach, creates an Appetite, procures a good Digeſtion, and in all Weakneſs of Body, or Decay of Conſtitution of any Kind, is a moſt infallible Reſtorative, and even ſeems to keep back the Effects of Old Age it ſelf.

It is to be taken but a few Drops at a Time, has a very fine Flavour, is pleaſant to the Palate, Cordial to the Stomach, and can be had only at the Gentlewoman's at the Two Blue Poſts in Haydon Yard in the Minories at 5s. a Bottle, with Directions.

Concerning Gleets and Seminal Weakneſſes of all Kinds,

ALL judicious Phyſicians and Surgeons allow, that nothing is more difficult to cure, even by the very beſt Method and Medicine in uſual Practice, than Stubborn Gleets and Seminal Weakneſſes whether occaſion'd by too ſevere purging for Venereal Injuries, violent Strains, Pollutio ſui, or any other Cauſe whatever; and that they are dangerous in their Conſequences, as well as difficult to cure, is as certain ſince they exceedingly weaken the Generative Faculties, infeeble the whole Nervous Syſtem, often bring on Hectick Heats, a Tabes Dorſalis, or Conſumpiton of the Back, or an Atrophy or Nervous Conſumption which frequently terminate in Death itſelf.

All ſuch therefore who have the Misfortune to be troubled with Old ſtubborn Gleets, Seminal Effuſions, Involuntary Emiſſions, exceſſive Nocturnal Pollutions, or any Weakneſs of the Kidneys, Ureters, or Bladder, the Diabetes, Incontinency of Urine, or Difficulty of holding their Water, would doubtleſs be glad to meet with a certain, ſafe and ſpeedy Cure, which they moſt aſſuredly may, by the taking only a ſmall Quantity of a tranſcendent Balſamick Reſtrictive Electuary, now publiſhed for a general Good, after having for many Years in private Practice been experienced never once to fail of perfectly curing the moſt ſtubborn Gleets known, in a few Days, without Difficulty or Trouble; as alſo all other Weakneſſes of the Back, Reins, Seminal Veſſels and Urinary Paſſages, which it almoſt inſtantly cures, bringing to right and reſtoring all thoſe Parts and Paſſages to their natural Tone and priſtine Vigour, in a very extraordinary Manner, and by taking a few Doſes of it only.

This tranſcendent Balſamick Reſtrictive Electuary is neither diſagreeable to take, nor occaſions the leaſt Diſorder, but is a wonderful Reſtorative in all Weakneſs and Decay of Conſtitution of any Kind, and particularly ſtrengthens the Back, Reins, Seminal and Urinary Veſſels, to an immenſe Degree, inſomuch that in any Debility of them, one Doſe of it does more than ten of any other Remedy yet found out; and all Perſons fatigued with Gleets or Seminal Weakneſſes of any Sort, or Weakneſſes of the Urinary Veſſels, who take it, will in three Days time find it ſo very effectual, that they will be moſt agreeably ſurpriſed at it.

When a Medicine will infallibly accompliſh ſuch a ſafe, ſpeedy and perfect Cure of ſuch difficult Maladies, as Gleets and Seminal Weakneſſes are, as this Great Remedy truly and directly will, even after all other Means and Medicines have been try'd in vain; too much cannot be ſaid in Praiſe of it, and this all who ever took it for any of the abovemention'd Purpoſes, have readily declared.

The Price is but 6s. a Pot, altho' for its abſolute Efficacy, one Pot alone being ſufficient in moſt Caſes to accompliſh a Cure, worth ten times as much, and is ready ſealed up, with a Book of Inſtructions, which whomſoever carefully reads will be complete Maſter of his own Caſe, and perfectly know, when the Gleet or Weakneſs he is afflicted with ſucceeds a Venereal Injury, whether all the Malignity of the Foul Diſeaſe is intirely extirpated or not.

Note, This fam'd Balſamic Electuary is now, by the Author's Appointment, to be had only at Mr. Eglinton's, (Mr. Radford being deceaſed) at the Golden Pair of Spectacles, againſt the Eaſt-End of the New-Church in the Strand, London. Ask only for a 6s. Pot of Balſamic Electuary. No Letters anſwer'd, unleſs Poſt-paid.
